

Pannier Market Report November/December 2017

General Update

- As we move towards Christmas we are running almost at full capacity with the allowance of sickness or unforeseen circumstances.
- Our internal Christmas lights and decorations will be in situ in time for Dickensian Evening on the 1st December.
- There has been a positive uptake/response during consultation to the imminent relocation of traders into the Town Hall starting January 2018. There will be a formal consultation for traders and perimeter shop keepers on the 29th November at 5.15pm in the Town Hall. Traders will shortly have a chance to have a second site visit at the beginning of December after completion of the Butchers' Hall refurbishment to see final positions and the Pannier Market team will support them both during the transition and during the period of their relocation.

New Traders:

- Pickering – Wed – Glass/Giftware – Started October 2017
- Beasley – Wed – Mixed Giftware – Started October 2017
- Eternal Prints – Wed – Printed Giftware – Started October 2017
- Shergold – Fri – Women's Fashionwear – Started November 2017

Bedford Square

The main activity on Bedford Square recently has been a mixture of the regular weekly traders, Tavi Arts Market and Tavistock Farmers Market.

Great Pannier Market

When visiting Tavistock and especially on a Tuesday (as its collectables etc) we always like a walk around. Lots of different stalls in a great old worldly setting. Bought some paperbacks 3 for £5 all good condition. There is also stamps, coins, jewellery, ornaments etc. etc. Hope you enjoy.

Market visit

The market is good for a wander round and there are some unusual bits to be bought. A good variety of stalls however not always a bargain to be had.
